LOSS TO A MINING TOWN.

Eight Houses Burned and Three Firemen Injured.

ASHLAND, Pa., Dec. 15.—At 7:30 o'clock yesterday evening fire broke out in a frame dwelling at Centralia, a mining town one mile from here, and before it was extinguished it had destroyed eight buildings owned by James Haggerty, O. B. Millard, Irvin Brothers and James Grant.

When the alarm of fire was first given there was a large crowd in the opera house where an entertainment was in progress, and the people rushed madly over each other for the doors. Fortunately no one was very badly injured.

Two firemen, while fighting the flames, fell from the roof of a building, sustaining serious injuries. Another fireman was badly burned.

The buildings were but partially injured. The loss is estimated at $13,000.

Young Field Arrested.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Edward M. Field, of the firm of Field, Lindley, Wiechers & Company, was arrested yesterday by Inspector Byrnes' men at the Manchester Mansion, a private insane asylum near Tuckahoe, N. Y. He is now locked up in this city. The arrest was made on a warrant issued by Judge Martine, and the charge is grand larceny in the second degree.

TO THE HAPPY HUNTING GROUND.

Death of Joel B. Mayes, Chief of the Cherokee Nation.

TABLET, I. T., Dec. 15.—Joel B. Mayes, chief of the Cherokee Nation, died here at 6 o'clock yesterday morning. The assistant chief is very ill.

Joel Bryan Mayes was born in the Cherokee reservation, Georgia, Oct. 2, 1853. His father was of white and mother of mixed blood, being descended on her paternal side from James Adair, an Indian agent under George H. J. Joel was removed when a boy to the Cherokee reservation in Indian Territory. He graduated from the Cherokee law school in 1879, and taught until the beginning of the civil war, and then he enlisted in the Confederate army. He was afterward made county commissioner and chief clerk to the Cherokee court, a dual position he held for many years. For several years he was county judge. While holding the latter office he was chosen associate and subsequently chief justice of the supreme court. He became the chief of the Cherokee Nation in August, 1887, having been elected after a close fight.

COLLISION IN PHILADELPHIA.

A Crowded Street Car Dashed Into by a Freight Train.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 15.—The engine of a Philadelphia and Reading freight train crashed into a traction car at Twelfth and Willow street about 6 o'clock last night. The street car was crowded with people returning home from work, and the conductor of the street car did not notice the approaching train.

The engine struck the rear part of the car as it was passing over the track, demolishing the car and breaking nearly all the glass in the windows. Most of the passengers were more or less cut by the flying pieces of glass. The only persons badly hurt were Miss Mamie Bryan and Mamie Green, who, after their wounds were dressed were taken to their homes.

Fleeing from a Volcano.

CITY OF MEXICO, Dec. 15.—The government fears that the villages adjacent to the volcano of Colima will share the fate of Pompeii and has therefore ordered the villagers to abandon their homes and move to places of safety. The volcano is now vomiting great volumes of lava, ashes and smoke, and the country for miles around is illuminated by the grand display. Strong winds carry the ashes a distance of 400 miles. A large party of scientists from various parts of Mexico have gone to visit the grand phenomenon.

Condemned Man Attempts Suicide.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 15.—W. E. Fitzgerald, who is to be hanged Friday morning of this week, attempted to commit suicide last night in the annex at the penitentiary, but the fact was not made public until Monday morning. Fitzgerald, in some very mysterious manner, got hold of some morphine and took an overdose. The prison physicians worked all night with Fitzgerald and it is thought he will recover.

Fought with Hammer and Pitchfork.

COLUMBUS, Ind., Dec. 15.—A most desperate fight took place here yesterday between Richard Brinkly, a furniture man, under the influence of liquor, and Dan Smith, a prominent livery man, as a result of an old grudge. Brinkly picked up a hammer and Smith a pitchfork. When the fight ended Brinkly was badly injured internally, bruised about the head, and had a broken arm. Smith was not injured.

Prize Fight Stopped by Police.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 15.—Alex M. Greggans, of San Francisco, and George La Blanche, the "Marine," fought last night with four-ounce gloves, for a purse of $2,000. The police stopped the fight in the eighteenth round, and Referee Danny Needham gave the fight to Greggans. He was loudly hissed, the crowd believing that honors were even. The battle was the liveliest seen in years.

Will Never Be Tried.

WAYCROSS, Ga., Dec. 15.—The Ware county new brick jail was broken into Sunday morning at 2:30 by a mob of fifty masked men. The steel cell containing Welcom E. Golden and Robert Knight, leaders of the Varn rioters, was riddled with bullets.

Strikers' Places All Filled.

TOPEKA, Kan., Dec. 15.—Information has been received here to the effect that the Southern Pacific railway has supplied the places of all striking operators with new men, and that the Western Union has put in new men at El Paso.

Found His Wife Dead.

BLANCHET, O., Dec. 15.—John Constable, of this town, returned home to dinner yesterday and found his wife lying beside the stove dead, with the meal cooking. The cause of the death was heart failure.

Suffocated by Gas.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Dec. 15.—Andrew Pohl was suffocated by gas escaping from a trench in a burning culm pile in which he was digging yesterday. Another of the workmen also lies in a dangerous condition.

Chinamen Arrested.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Dec. 15.—Ten Chinamen out of a party of seventeen, who were dumped here last night from British Columbia, have been arrested by customs officers. The other seven escaped.

Was a Lunatic.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—The coroner reports that the brain of the man who threw the bomb at Russell Sage is that of a lunatic. The brain weighed more than the average, but was abnormally distorted.

LA GRIPPE VICTIMS.

The Disease Rapidly Spreading in Philadelphia.

WHOLE FAMILIES SUFFERING.

One Physician Alone Has Treated Over Five Thousand Cases This Winter—A Number of Deaths from the Dread Malady—The Disease at Other Places.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 15.—La grippe is spreading in this city to an alarming extent. Almost in a day whole families have been seized. In homes, in charitable institutions and everywhere masses meet and mingle the contagion is spreading like a wind-blown flame.

At the asylum for indigent widows and single women, at Thirty-sixth and Chestnut, forty of the ninety-two inmates are prostrated, and six deaths have already occurred, and many others who are prostrated with the disease, it is feared, will not recover.

Dr. E. Watson, who has personally treated over 5,000 cases since its inception this winter, says that it is in a milder form than for the two preceding seasons.

A number of prominent persons are now prostrated with it, among them Mr. George W. Childs, Madame Helene Modjeska, Dr. Hayes Agnew and wife and Prof. or Boone, of Jefferson college, and a host of others.

Physicians Powerless.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., Dec. 15.—Ninety-ninth of the population here are afflicted with the grip. Ten deaths from the influence of the disease have occurred in this place. Over a thousand cases are reported from Norwalk, and there have been twenty-four deaths there since the first of the month. Three of the family of John Malone have died. The local physicians are unable to answer all the calls made upon them.

At Centerville, Indiana.

RICHMOND, Ind., Dec. 15.—La grippe is very bad at Centerville, several miles west of here. Though only a small village they have 198 cases there. There is hardly a family but what is afflicted, and in some families the members are all down with cases ranging from light to severe. There have been three deaths from the disease in the past three days of prominent farmers.

All Over the Country.

CHICAGO, Dec. 15.—Special dispatches to a morning paper from a number of the larger cities of the country from New York to San Francisco show that on account of the prevailing mild, damp weather, the grip is again prevalent. At some points it is quite severe, but is generally of a mild form.

At Nashville, Tenn.

NASHVILLE, Dec. 15.—Influenza seems to be on a rampage in Nashville. The estimate comes from good authority that no less than 8,000 people here are now under treatment for it.

SPARKLERS RECOVERED.

Detective Norris Seizes the Thieves and Likewise Their Swag.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 15.—Late Saturday afternoon Chief Deitch received word from John T. Norris that he could turn up the diamonds stolen at Dayton from R. E. Kranig, the salesman of the Herman Keck Manufacturing company, of this city. He also said that he would get the thieves.

He arrived in the city about midnight, and after a long consultation with Chief and Mr. Keck, Norris returned to Springfield, and Ralph Crawford went to Dayton with Captain Swisher, of that city. From there the party, with a Pinkerton man, went to Jeffersonville, Fayette county. One mile west of there live a family named Hurliss.

In a barn on this farm was found the diamonds in four jars, the total value being $13,000.

They arrested "Bloody" Hurliss, son of the aged farmer; his mistress, Mrs. Higby; William Forsee and Fritz Dhien, and locked them up at Dayton. The latter is a notorious diamond thief, while the others are comparatively unknown.

Dhien was the fellow who found that Kranig would be in Dayton, and Hurliss followed him to the depot, and when the salesman got lunch he took the jewelry case and boarded the outgoing train, upon which he rode a few squares and then got off and at once went to his father's, where he "planted" the gems. Forsee's connection is not clearly known, while the woman is held on general principles. Dhien was the schemer and planned the robbery.

NO FURTHER RIOTING.

Still an Outbreak is Hourly Feared in the Colorado Mining Camp.

DENVER, Dec. 15.—Latest advices from the scene of the rioting at the little mining camp of Crested Butte, Colo., state that the temporary peace which was restored Sunday still remains. However, an armed force of men under the command of Sheriff Shoers protects the property and lives of the little town, and forty armed men with Winchester are guarding the property of the Colorado Coal and Iron company, the company by whom the insurgent foreigners were employed. Reinforcements are held at Gunnison ready to march to the aid of Sheriff Shoers in case there should be an outbreak.

The strikers are as thoroughly armed as the officers and their deputies and besides far exceed the latter in number, being about 200. They are desperate men who have become hardened by life in the mountain wilds and who entertain little regard for American institutions. Very few if any of them are citizens. Nevertheless it is improbable that there will be more bloodshed until the company should import men to take the places of the strikers. The officers of the company say they will not under any circumstances re-instate the rioting strikers and they aver that they cannot afford now to close down their mines at Crested Butte. Therefore the situation in the excited little camp is critical, and there may yet be bloodshed and lives lost.

NORCROSS WAS THE MAN.

All Doubts Removed as to the Identity of the Bomb Thrower.

BOSTON, Dec. 15.—Mrs. Norcross, mother of the bomb thrower, said yesterday that a letter had been found on her son's desk Saturday. She would not divulge the full contents of the note, but stated that it removed all doubts from her mind and that of her husband that might have remained as to the identity of the bomb thrower. She gave the opening sentence of the note which makes certain that Henry L. Norcross was the man who dropped the bomb of dynamite in the office of Russell Sage. The sentence is: "I go to New York today to get $1,300,000. If I do not succeed I shall kill myself."

As to the rest of the letter it may be inferred from a subsequent sentence which fell from the mother's lips. "He was insane," she said, "and made a martyr of himself in the interest of his inventions and of the good of society."

Mr. and Mrs. Norcross will go to New York in a day or two to claim the remains of their son. It is believed that the remains will be cremated, as Henry Norcross expressed a desire to that effect in case he should die before his parents.

EVENTFUL LIFE CLOSED.

Death of Hon. Daniel McLaughlin, at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

HARRISBURG, Dec. 15.—The Hon. Daniel McLaughlin died here last night at his daughter's residence. With his death closes a life which is almost an exemplification of the sarcasm of fate. A man of brilliant attainments and great mental vigor, achieving at one time the greatest triumphs as an eloquent and able lawyer, for two years a distinguished member of the Pennsylvania house of representatives, the Hon. Daniel McLaughlin has died penniless, friendless and homeless.

The great Johnstown flood of 1889, that entailed so much destruction and misery, brought also his destitution, wiping away all he ever possessed. To cap his misfortune came the blow of learning the falseness of supposed friends of more prosperous days. Sick and heartened, he trudged from place to place, reaching his daughter's home in time to die, a friendless, forlorn and penniless statesman of a great republic.

DARING HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

Pack Peddler Brutally Assaulted and Robbed.

ENGLISH, Ind., Dec. 15.—Julius Winstock, a Helweg pack peddler, whose home is in Louisville, was waylaid and robbed on the public highway between here and the tunnel while on his way from his place of lodgment to the town, where he intended to catch the morning train to Louisville.

There were two robbers. One seized him while the other struck him with a club, felling him, whereupon the first struck him with a pistol stock. They then robbed him of $145. Detectives are at work upon the case. Fifty dollars reward is offered by the town for the arrest and conviction of the robbers.

Base Ball Magnates in Conference.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 15.—There is considerable interest here growing out of the coming meeting of the base ball magnates today, and it is generally believed that something in the direction of a settlement will be accomplished. The scheme is to drop four of the sixteen clubs and form a twelve-club league, six clubs east and six west, and get this city into the new league by dropping Louisville. Several of the Association and League magnates are already here, but they refuse to talk on the subject.

Prominent Physician Passed Away.

RIPLEY, O., Dec. 15.—Dr. A. N. Wylie, one of the oldest and most prominent physicians of southern Ohio, died yesterday, aged seventy-nine. He had resided in Ripley almost continuously since 1817. He was educated at the Transylvania university, Lexington, Ky., and at the Jefferson medical college, Philadelphia. He enjoyed the unlimited confidence of his patients and stood the peer of any in professional and business integrity.

Reprimanded for Being Too Fresh.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The assistant secretary of the treasury has reprimanded William Bates, commissioner of navigation, for permitting his annual report to be published in advance of submission to the department and for including in it theories, conjectures and other irrelevant matter. He has ordered Mr. Bates to rewrite the report and cut it down more than half. The report as first made out contained 40,000 words.

License Revoked.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 15.—State Auditor Henderson has revoked the license of the Progressive Benefit order, of Boston, to do business in this state. The step was taken after an investigation in which it developed that the order had but $55,000 capital and about $3,000,000 liabilities. A great deal of insurance has been done by the order, and it is believed that thousands of people have been swindled.

Congressman Johnson Ill.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Congressman Johnson, of Cleveland, was taken suddenly ill at the St. James hotel last night, but it is not feared that the attack of fever which he has will prove serious. The congressman came over from Washington Saturday, and was intending to return to the capital tomorrow, but may be unable to do so.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1891.

The Flemingsburg Gazette says that "Mills and Crisp were both secessionists in principle and practice." The question is not what they were, but what they are. They are good citizens of this grand country of ours, and as such entitled to all the privileges resulting from citizenship.

MAYSVILLE ought to provide a better method of getting the hose carriages to fires. The present system of relying upon men and boys is out of date. The city pays the fire companies $400 a year each, but of late many members never take hold of a carriage when an alarm is given. If we are wrong in this statement we'll gladly publish a correction. In most every instance that has come under our observation we have seen three or four men and a few boys tugging along the street with the hose. In the case of the fire that occurred at Mr. W. H. Yancy's a few weeks ago, a gentleman was at the bridge near the K. C. depot when the blaze was first discovered. He walked back fifty or one hundred yards, viewed the burning building for several minutes and then came on down town. When he reached Limestone street, a hose carriage was heard coming up that street en route to the fire. It was too far away for him to notice how many people had hold of it, but there couldn't have been very many, judging from the slow rate they were traveling. What the city needs is an electric alarm system, a couple of horses to haul the hose carriages and just about half a dozen good strong men to manage the hose. There are always plenty of men about a fire to render all the assistance necessary.

From all that has been published, the "Garfield Park race course" at Chicago is a disgrace to the American turf. The BULLETIN referred to it not long since, and characterized it as being a place operated simply for gambling purposes only. When a set of men talk about underlaying a race course with a net-work of pipes in order that the track might be kept dry in winter by means of steam, they are not fools, but a lot of tricksters and gamblers who want to keep a few "plugs" going in order to continue their robbery of a lot of people who are really fools.

But the better class of people of Chicago have succeeded in having this race course closed, and the Daily Press says: "It will never be opened again if the city, park and State authorities can prevent it, for the racing of the last eight weeks was so palpably maintained for the sole and single purpose of gambling that the track would very easily come within the meaning of the ordinance against 'keeping and maintaining a common gambling house.' For the present the nuisance is done with, and the track and its surroundings are no longer a stench in the nostrils of decent people." The Press adds: "The place was opened with a great flourish of trumpets. It was to be model race course. Everything about it was to be beyond suspicion. Lynx-eyed judges and immaculate officials were imported. Then a gambling game began—a game that has netted the owners of the track the enormous sum of $700,000 in less than six months. This transcends the profits of the great continental gambling place, Monte Carlo. For weeks there has been no disguise on the part of the managers of the track. They boldly announced that it was kept open solely for gambling purposes, and no pretense was made that it was in the interest of the thoroughbred horse or to foster and promote honest racing. Day after day plain and audacious robbery was done by the gamblers doing business there and the public was robbed. The press of the city finally refused to mention the alleged races, and the shrewd managers, satisfied that they had squeezed the people's pockets of the last possible penny, decided to close up for the winter."

The turf associations throughout the land ought to bar every individual connected with this Garfield Park robbing scheme.

For the Children.

Our readers will notice the advertisements in these columns of Chamberlain & Co., Des Moines, Iowa. From personal experience we can say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has broken up bad colds for our children and we are acquainted with many mothers in Centerville who would not be without it in the house for a good many times its cost and are recommending it every day.—Centerville (S. D.) Chronicle and Index.

MAJOR J. ALEX GRANT, Assistant Register of Land Office, says he has eaten so many rabbits this fall that every time he sees a dog he wants to jump into a 'bresh' pile.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became a Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Plenty of Game.

Now that the game law is off, our woods will swarm with hunters of all descriptions, from the "cockney" sportsman down (or up) to the professional hunter. There are generally four hunters to one bird, and we have known men tramping all day and bringing home two or three little chirping birds. It is this class of hunters who do the most damage, as they are not capable of shooting game birds, and pepper away at any and every little bird they see, till there are hardly any left. Our local hunters say that there will be plenty of game this season. Generally speaking we have a fair, mild winter, very little crust on the snow and but few ice storms.

The severe ice storms destroy more quail than the hunters kill, because quail generally roost together on the ground, and if snow falls during the night and crusts over, it simply smother them. Hunters have found whole flocks of them lying close together, having been unable to penetrate through the crust. There were never so many flocks of quail around as at present. Go where you will you will find them. A large flock passed over the fair ground Wednesday afternoon while the trotting took place, which made some of our hunters' mouths water.

Partridges are also very plenty, and, what is still better, they are full grown and plump. Of woodcock we have seen every season in our swamps, but the summer shooting has killed them off, and but very few breed in our swamps now. The fall flight generally brings a few scattering ones, but as they are a migratory bird and fly principally during the nighttime, we get but now and then a chance to shoot at them. There are also plenty of foxes, and our hunters need not go very far to find them if they only know how, as Reynard is a cunning and sly chap.—Watertown (N. Y.) Cor. Waterbury American.

New Lakes on Mars.

There is one point of view from which the formation of a new lake in southern California by the overflowing of a sandy desert with water from the Colorado river possesses peculiar interest. It may throw light upon some of the mysterious changes that have occurred upon the planet Mars. Near the equator of Mars there is a region which has been believed to be part of the dry land of that planet, and which has been named Lybia by the Italian astronomer Schiaparelli.

But a few years ago a change occurred in the color of "Lybia," and some of the observers thought that it must have been suddenly overflowed with water, since it had assumed the color characteristic of the other regions of Mars that are supposed to be water covered.

Other similar changes have been seen by telescopicists on Mars.

Now that a new lake has actually been formed on the earth by the unexpected filling up with water of a depressed area of dry land, those who believe that a similar occurrence, on a larger scale, has taken place on Mars will probably be strengthened in that interesting opinion.—Youth's Companion.

Snibbling Beans.

Snibbling beans is at this season of the year an evening occupation for German housewives. They are the common string beans, which can be bought by the bag, about two bushels. They are washed and strung, and then, with a very sharp knife or special implement, they are cut into very thin slices and packed in layers in an earthen crock. On each layer of beans is spread a layer of salt, and when the crock is almost full a large plate covers the whole, and is held down by a weight, generally a brick. If brine does not collect sufficiently to cover the layers, a little water is added, and the beans are ready for use in the winter. The salt that is absorbed must be removed by soaking the beans overnight, when they are ready to be cooked. It is not unusual for housewives to have snibbling parties, at which their friends and relatives assist in the slicing, refreshments being secondary features of the occasions.—New York Sun.

A Spanish Born Missourian.

James Ryan, better known as Uncle Jimmie, is now eighty-six years of age. He has never lived outside of what are now the confines of the state of Missouri. Yet he was born a subject of Spain. When this territory was ceded to France Uncle Jimmie became a Frenchman. Afterward the territory was purchased by the United States, and so today Mr. Ryan is an American citizen. His has been an eventful life, as he remarked at the old settlers' meeting, but the evening of his days is peaceful and his heart is as young now as when he was a Spaniard eighty-five years ago.—Nevada (Mo.) Democrat.

A Banana Tree That Bears.

Mr. L. Gillen has a genuine curiosity in the form of a banana tree, ten feet tall, bearing one bunch of bananas. He has a number of other banana trees, but none bearing fruit save this one. The leaves are long and slender, and the motion of the wind causes the leaf to cut in two like ribbons. Until the sun's rays cause the bud to open it much resembles a large red water lily bud tightly closed. This covering drops off in time, leaving the fruit lying closely side by side to ripen.—Lexington (Mo.) News.

Plenty of Young Vipers.

While Theodore Burns was cutting hay on a farm near Hunter the sickle cut a spotted viper into four pieces. It was four feet long and within it were found eighty-five little vipers, four to six inches long. The snake literature of Missouri this season is unusually prolific and varied.—Fulton (Mo.) Sun.

Water at Fifty Cents a Drink in Maine.

A Lewiston gentleman driving in the country found the watering places by the roadside dry as herring bones. Seeing a farmer in a yard by the roadside he drove up to the door and asked for water for his horse. The man looked at him interrogatively and said:

"Water? I should say not. I shouldn't agree to give your horse what water he might want under half a dollar. It's worth that."

The Lewiston gentleman paid it and the horse was watered, and the farmer said in explanation that all the water they had was brought a long distance laboriously, by hand, and that it cost nearly that amount in time and hard work to get it. Water at fifty cents a bucket in Maine is a novelty.—Lewiston Journal.

"Sure, Mrs. McCarty, an it's meself would have loiked to have been a birrud on St. Valentine's Day.

"An for why? It's only a sorry lookin birrud you would be, to my thinkin, Mrs. Mahoney."

"Same to yerself, and thank ye, ma'am; but on the day of St. Valentine—rist his sowl!—ivery birrud could choose his mate, an it's not meself that can do that, for all the fresh mate O've had this blissed winter has been a bit of bacon ivery day, an it's toired of it indade Oi am."—Texas Siftings.

Weekly Review of Cincinnati Tobacco Market.

The offerings at auction for the week were 2,436 lbs. of tobacco as follows: 671 lbs. Mason County (Ky.) District; 44 lbs. Pendleton County (Ky.) District; 215 lbs. Owen County (Ky.) District; 370 lbs. Blue Grass (Ky.) District; and 294 lbs. Brown County (Ohio) District, against 2,292 lbs. of the same grades of the previous week, and 2,417 lbs. corresponding week last year.

Total offerings for the year to date 114,189 lbs., against 115,877 lbs. same time last year.

Receipts for the week.....1,053

Receipts same week last year.....507

The breaks were somewhat larger than previous week. The receipts held about the same size, and there was shown a reduction in stock of 624 lbs. That was during the week a firm steady market, with sales generally satisfactory, and about the usual percentage of rejections. Good to fine leaf—and there was a fair display of this leaf—was in active demand at full figures. Colored flues ready bidders and all grades of this character bring full prices. Common and medium leaf was in steady request and sold well. The common and low grades were, of course, offered in large numbers, but there is a good, steady demand, and they are selling at prices that are as a rule accepted.

There was a very noticeable increase in the number of bidders of the new crop on sale, and for all such there is an active demand, buyers being spirited bidders, and full and satisfactory prices are received, many hogheads selling from $15 to $19.75 and up to $25.25.

Of the 2,436 lbs. 1,320 from $1 to $3.95, 947 from $4 to $5.95, 725 from $6 to $7.95, 235 from $8 to $9.95, 227 from $10 to $14.75, 165 from $15 to $19.75, 40 from $20 to $29.75, and 1 at $25.

AN OLD "EAGLE."

Not the Bird of Freedom, but a Copy of the Paper of that Name.

Mr. George R. Wells, one of Mason County's thrifty and esteemed farmers, living near Bernard, brought to the BULLETIN office a few days since a copy of "The Maysville Eagle" of the issue of June 28th, 1832. On the margin, in ink, is the address of "B Lee" or "S. B. Lee".

The paper was in its twelfth year at that time, the issue being No. 34 of vol. XII. The late Lewis Collins was editor and publisher, the subscription price being $3 per annum—or $2.50 in advance.

Considerable space is devoted to news from the "State of England," the doings of the "House of Lords" occupying about three columns of the first page. It advocated the election of the National Republican ticket viz: Henry Clay for President and John Sergeant for Vice President.

January, Huston & Co. were then engaged in the grocery business and advertised that they had received a big shipment of sugar, molasses, liquors &c., from New Orleans per steamers Baltic and Atlantic. M. Langhorne & Son advertised that they had received eighty boxes of window glass and "twelve tierces of Western Reserve cheese." "Six boxes of sperm candles received per steamer Ohio" were for sale by Mackey & McIlvain. Robert Humphries was Commissioner of the Mason Circuit Court. Th. W. Hawkins advertised ten barrels loaf sugar. John C. Reid & Co. were dealers in copper, tin and sheet-iron ware. Another dealer in the same line of goods—the late Joseph Frank—had an advertisement in the paper. E. D. Boone was running "a wholesale tin factory" "in the store room opposite the Eagle bookstore on Sutton street" and A. P. Stewart was running "a boot and shoe manufactory" also on Sutton street.

Nat Poyntz & Co., were engaged in the commission and grocery business. Drs. Shackleford & Payne advertised they had formed a partnership in the practice of medicine and surgery obstetrics. Dr. Nelson advertised he had removed "to the brick house recently built by Mr. Johnson Armstrong, on Second street, next door to Mr. Huston's residence." A Dr. Holton lived in Maysville in those days, as Dr. J. Newton Smith advertised his office on "Second street in the house lately occupied by Dr. Holton." Dr. Smith kept regularly on hand a supply of patent medicines. Dr. Culbertson had an office on Sutton, between Second and Third.

Joseph Means had established "a currying shop" at Washington. S. H. Coulter dealt in candies, cakes, fine cordials &c. He had just received "80 barrels of porter and ale". J. Armstrong & Son were wholesale dealers in dry goods. Dr. J. W. Henry had removed from Washington to Mayslick. Nathan Hixson was converting his steam mill into a paper mill. John B. Gibson was engaged in the insurance business. A. M. Hall & Co. were druggists and apothecaries, and Cassat, Hutchison & Ledlie were in the wholesale grocery and produce business. The American Sunday School Union had a depository in the Eagle Book Store, and L. Collins was in charge of it.

The Banner was a Maysville and Cincinnati packet, while the Ohio Mail Steamboat Company was running the "Gwynndotte," "Friend," "Lady Washington," "Robert Fulton" four times a week from Guyandotte to Cincinnati and six times a week from Cincinnati to Louisville.

John and Lewis Jacobs were running a plow factory. Dr. J. M. Duke was practicing medicine at Washington. Most everybody advertised in those days.

Lotteries flourished. Here are the names of some that were advertised: "Virginian State," "Wheeling," "Grand Consolidated," "New York Scheme," "McDonald's Court of Fortune," "The Petersburg," and "Union Canal."

The cholera scare was then on. The dread disease had reached Canada. The paper had a column or two as to remedies, preventives and suggestions for treatment. One of the remedies was: Carb. of soda, half a drachm, common salt, twenty grains, oxymuriate of potash, seven grains. This was to be mixed into powders and one given in half a glass of cold water every hour. It is doubtful whether such a remedy would ever be thought of nowadays, yet it was recommended on high authority from London.

Dr. A. N. Wylie.

Dr. Pangburn received a telegram from Ripley yesterday bringing the sad news of the death of his brother-in-law, Dr. A. N. Wylie, which occurred at that place yesterday morning. Deceased had been in failing health several years. Last week he was stricken with the gripe, the attack, complicated with his other ailment—rheumatism—finally resulting fatally.

Deceased was about seventy-five years of age, and was the oldest physician of Brown County. He was one of Ripley's highly esteemed citizens. The funeral takes place to-morrow morning.

Religious News.

Rev. W. J. Loos, of Louisville, will take part in the dedication of the new $10,000 Christian Church at Mayslick, next Sunday.

A special from Cleveland, Ohio, says: "A novel feature in communion service was inaugurated in the Seville Avenue Methodist Church Sunday morning. It has been customary in the Methodist Church to serve communion wine to all partakers from one cup. Rev. H. Webb held that it was as much a vulgarism to do so as to require a tea party to drink from the same tea cup, and, on the ground of decency, good taste and politeness, he furnished each member who attended the service with a separate cup. There were seventy-two in all and the cups would not go around, so some of them had to be washed. Some of the conservative members are inclined to grumble at the departure from orthodoxy."

SENATE PROCEEDINGS.

Over Two Hundred Bills Introduced During a Short Session.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The senate in its brief open session yesterday added 214 to the list of bills introduced, making a total for two days 827. Among them were bills to erect monuments to General U. S. Grant and Mary Washington; to authorize the much-discussed permanent census bureau; to repeal the law prohibiting ex-Confederates from entering the army and navy of the United States, and a number of important merchant marine and shipping bills presented by Mr. Frye, of Maine, from the committee on commerce.

The proposed increased pension legislation received several accessions including a bill pensioning all soldiers who fought in Indian wars.

Two additional bills were added to the already long list of Chinese restriction measures.

The senate in secret session referred a number of recess appointments received during the morning from the president, to the appropriate committees, and at the request of Senator Allen, of Washington, confirmed the nomination of Andrew Wasson as collector of customs at Puget sound.

Without transacting further business the senate at 1:30 adjourned.

HOUSE APPOINTMENTS.

Nat Crutchfield, of Kentucky, Selected as Journal Clerk.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Clerk James Kerr, of the house of representatives, in making his appointments has selected as journal clerk Mr. Nat Crutchfield, of Kentucky, in place of Mr. Harry Smith, who, with a brief intermission, has held the position since his appointment by Speaker Kerr in the Forty-fourth congress, and whose compilations of parliamentary law have become text books. Mr. Crutchfield was one of Speaker Cullis's clerks, and was a candidate for the clerkship of the house, but withdrew at the last moment in favor of Mr. Kerr, who has now appointed him journal clerk.

House Postmaster Dalton has appointed Mr. Ross, of Indiana, his deputy.
